Already have an account?

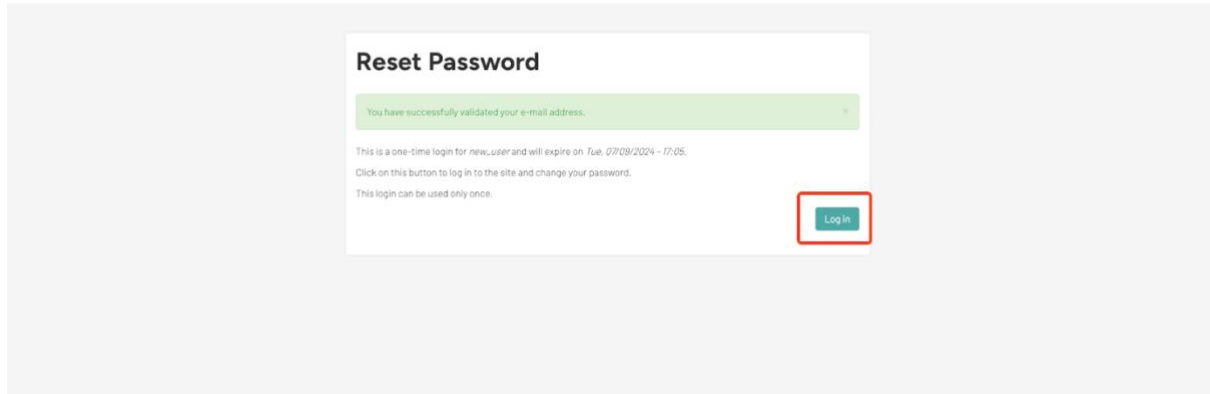

You'll see the following confirmation screen:

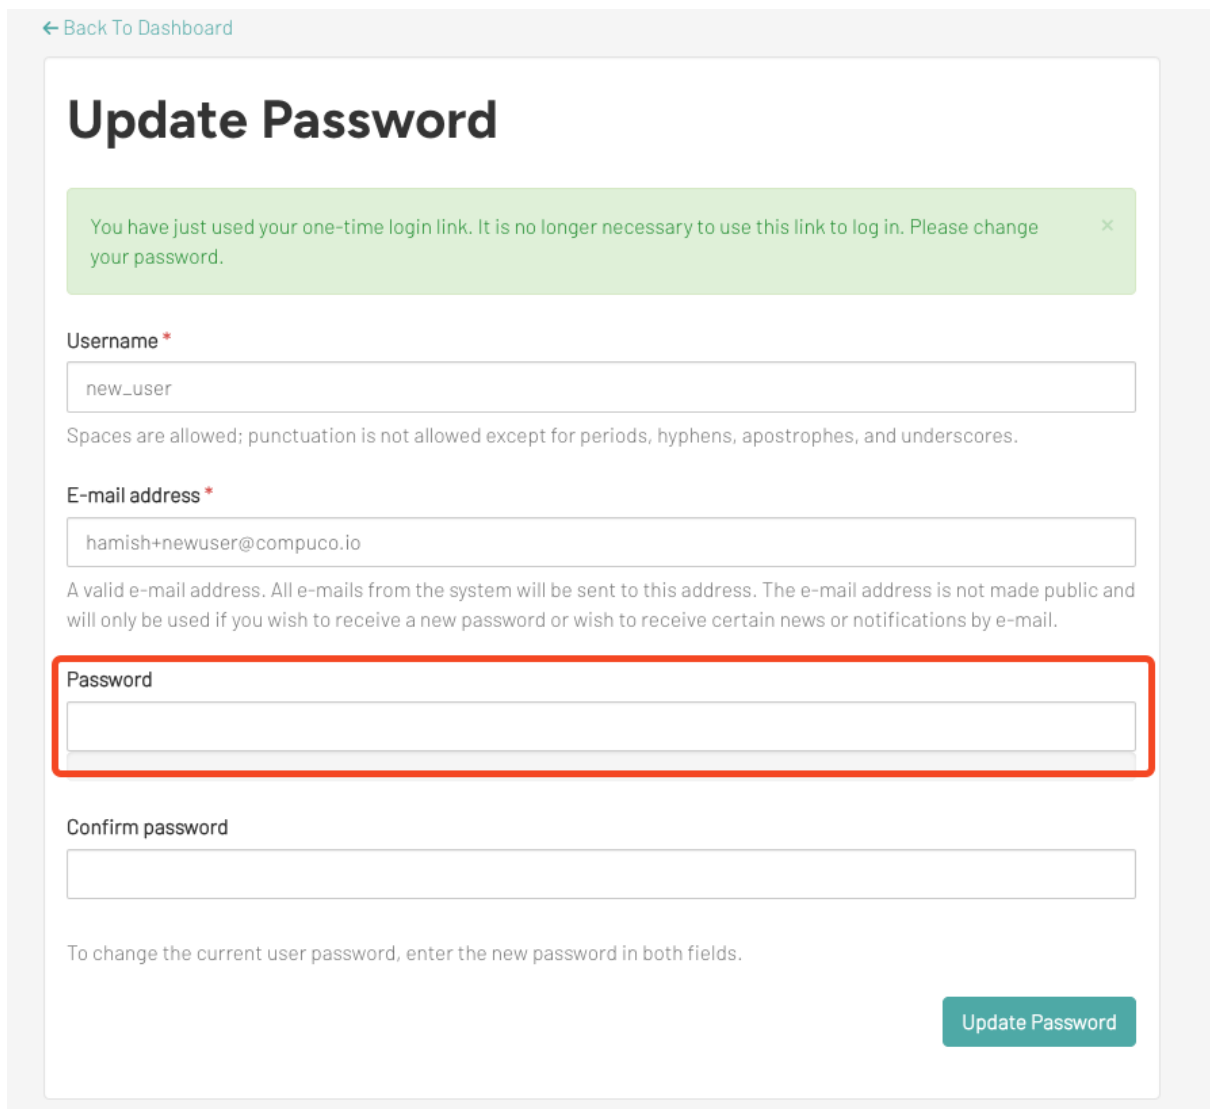

And then receive an email that looks like this:

Follow the link to confirm your account, and select “log in” to log in for the first time, and set your password:

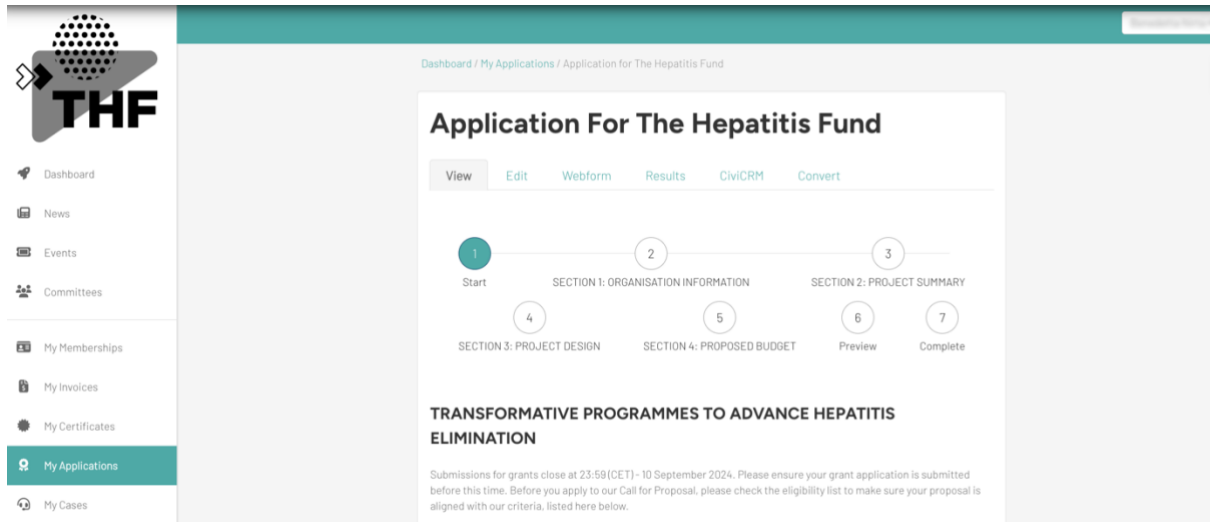

You can now set the password to use for your account going forward:

Once entered, select “update password”

Now your account is fully setup, you will be returned to the application form:

Note that the menu in the top right now shows you as a logged in user, and will allow you to manage your account going forwards.
